At Greensboro College, you’ll have an entire team of people ready to help you handle anything and everything that comes your way. This personalized support gives you the skills and confidence to succeed at Greensboro College—and everywhere else in life!

Finding Your Place at Greensboro College
Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI)

We are a school that thrives on embracing each other’s differences. That sentiment holds true for every member of the Greensboro College community, regardless of your race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, gender, or age. The Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion provides advocacy, programming, and services to foster an environment where everyone feels welcome. Our campus is rooted in the belief that everyone has a place in our community.

Helping You Move Mountains
Personal Enrichment and Knowledge (PEAK)

Learning the ins and outs of college academics isn’t always easy and, at one point or another, everyone struggles to find their footing. Whether you’re second-guessing your major, need help acing your upcoming test or can’t seem to find an effective way to study, the PEAK (which stands for Personal Enrichment and Knowledge) is here to lend a helping hand. The PEAK offers a variety of free services to students including academic advising, study skills/time-management coaching, investigating different majors, arranging classroom accommodations, career counseling, and providing tutors.

Learning Tailored Toward Your Unique Skills
Universal Design for Learning (UDL)

Every student has a unique way of learning and Greensboro College is committed to adapting our curriculum so you can learn in a way that fits you best. Universal Design for Learning (UDL) is an innovative approach to teaching in higher education where content and instruction benefit all learning styles. UDL ensures you have an inclusive learning environment and are equipped with everything you need, so there’s nothing that stands in the way of you and success.

An All-New Way to Share Your Voice
Global Communication Center (GCC)

The First Citizens Bank Global Communication Center (GCC), located on the Greensboro College campus, connects you with 21st-century media and communication services. From free, professional consultations to invaluable resources like recording studios, equipment and editing software, the GCC can bring any media project you dream of to life. Learn everything there is to know about written and oral communication, podcasting, graphic design, photography and video projects at the GCC.

Even for the best students, college presents a whole new set of challenges.

Your Path Forward.
Jump into a whole new you.

LET’S BE REAL. SOME OF YOUR BEST COLLEGE MOMENTS WILL HAPPEN OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM.

Your passions have a home here. Our countless activities, inclusive clubs, and high-energy athletics (Division III and intramural) allow you to explore what interests you and make great friends along the way.

From running for Student Government to working in the GC community garden to painting your heart out with the Art League, there’s something for you at Greensboro College.

SMALL-CAMPUS ATTENTION MEETS BIG-CITY CONNECTION.

You’ll love living and learning in the third-largest city in North Carolina. Within walking distance or a short drive from campus, you can wander through the vintage shops on Elm Street. Hit the Food Truck Festival with your friends. Catch a local band at one of our live music venues. See a Broadway show at the Steven Tanger Center for the Performing Arts. Cheer on the Greensboro Grasshoppers minor-league baseball team. Plus, you’ll have access to great internship opportunities with area businesses. There’s so much to do day and night in the city of Greensboro, and you’ll have it all right in your own backyard.
