DO WHAT YOU LOVE

Step into the spotlight at Greensboro College's Department of Theatre, where creativity takes center stage and every student has a place to shine.

THEATRE

Whether you're interested in performance, musical theatre, costume design, technical theatre, or theatre studies, you'll find exciting majors and minors designed to help you develop your talents and discover new possibilities.

Learn, create, and perform in two campus theaters while gaining hands-on experience both onstage and behind the scenes. Along the way, you'll be mentored by talented faculty members and working professionals who are dedicated to helping you grow as an artist and a person. With scholarship opportunities available and countless chances to perform and create, Greensboro College is the perfect place to turn your passion for theatre into a life-changing experience.

MUSIC AND BANDS

Turn up the volume on your future at Greensboro College's Department of Music. Whether you're pursuing a major in Music or Music Education, or adding a Music minor to your academic journey, you'll find endless opportunities to learn, perform, and grow as a musician. From ensemble concerts and recitals to special performances across campus, you'll gain valuable hands-on experience while sharing your talents with the community.

More than coaches, our athletic staff serve as mentors who are committed to helping you grow as a leader, student, and competitor. From your first practice to graduation day, we provide the guidance, resources, and encouragement to help you succeed.

ATHLETICS

Take your game to the next level at Greensboro College, where student-athletes compete in NCAA Division III and the USA South Athletic Conference while pursuing a first-class, private education. With 21 men's and women's varsity teams, a newly renovated athletic field, and a supportive campus community, you'll have every opportunity to excel in your sport and in the classroom.

ART

At Greensboro College's Department of Art—part of the School of the Arts—you'll master foundational techniques in painting, sculpture, and design, then push past them. Small classes and spacious studios give your ideas room to grow, all just steps from a major downtown arts district ready to be your second studio. Oil paint or pixels, clay or charcoal—whatever your medium, you'll learn to speak through it. Choose a BA or BS in Art, a BFA in Painting or Sculpture, or a BA in Art Education. This isn't a place to wait for permission to make art. It's where you start making it—loudly, boldly, on your own terms.

FROM CLASSROOM TO CAREER

INTERNSHIPS

Greensboro College students complete an internship or an experiential learning opportunity before graduation, gaining real-world experience that builds confidence, skills, and a professional network. Our students have interned with leading organizations, nonprofits, schools, healthcare providers, and government agencies—often turning those experiences into full-time careers after graduation. With personalized career support, dedicated faculty mentors, and countless opportunities just minutes from campus, Greensboro College helps you discover your path, achieve your goals, and Graduate Ready for Anything.

TURN YOUR PASSION INTO A PROFESSION.

"My professor (Hasije Harris) was instrumental in helping me land my internship at Breslow Starling Public Accountants in Greensboro. My internship went so well that they offered me a full-time job once I graduated!"

"I was a research assistant for a surgical oncologist at Wake Forest (WakeMed) where I enrolled patients in clinical trials, and tested recovering patients in the cancer ward. I learned a great deal about patient interaction and the work that goes into clinical trials."

"I spent my internship with the Kellin Foundation to learn about how to become a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. The experience was so helpful, and it made me more confident that I have a place in the field of Social Work."

A COLLEGE EXPERIENCE THAT HAS THE WHOLE CITY BEHIND IT

At Greensboro College, your campus is just the beginning. Situated in the heart of the third-largest city in North Carolina — our historic campus puts you steps away from one of the most vibrant and welcoming downtowns in the South.

EXPLORE a thriving dining scene with locally owned restaurants, coffee shops, and eateries lining Elm Street and beyond. Join thousands of neighbors each year at the beloved Greensboro Food Truck Festival, where live music, and great energy fill the downtown streets.

Catch a Greensboro Grasshoppers baseball game at the minor league stadium in the heart of downtown, or experience a Broadway production or a major musical artist at the stunning Steven Tanger Center for the Performing Arts.

And beyond the fun, Greensboro's booming business community means real-world internship and job opportunities are within reach — with leading companies in healthcare, technology, and finance, calling Greensboro home.

STUDENT LIFE:

FROM GAME NIGHTS TO GAME DAYS — WE'VE GOT IT ALL

The GC Student Center — your home base for hanging out, grabbing a bite, and connecting with friends between classes. Stop into Britt's Coffee Shop for your morning (Starbucks®) fuel or an afternoon pick-me-up while you catch up with classmates.

Throughout the year, the campus comes alive with themed events featuring food trucks, lawn games, live entertainment, and pop-up activities that make even a random Tuesday feel like something to look forward to. At Greensboro College, there's always something happening — and you're always invited.

CLASS IS JUST THE BEGINNING

At Greensboro College, the moment you step outside the classroom, a whole new world of opportunity opens up. With dozens of clubs and organizations, there's something here for everyone — whether you're into student government, community service, faith groups, academic clubs, or just finding your people. Live music performances, theatre productions, athletic events, guest lectures and art showcases fill the college calendar, giving you a front-row seat to the incredible talent that thrives on this campus.

YOUR HOME AWAY FROM HOME.

You'll love coming home to one of the most comfortable living experiences. Greensboro College offers some of the largest student residence hall rooms in the state — because we believe where you live matters just as much as where you learn. Everything you need is right outside your door. The dining hall, athletic fields, theatre, classrooms, and student center are all just a short walk away — making campus life convenient, connected, and easy to navigate. And here's something you won't find everywhere: all students — including first-year students — are welcome to bring a car to campus, and parking is always free. Even better, laundry is free in the residence halls, so you can spend less time worrying about the small stuff and more time enjoying everything GC has to offer. Our dedicated Residence Life staff is here to support you every step of the way, from your very first week to graduation day. You won't just live here — you'll belong here.

YOUR HEALTH AND WELLNESS MATTER.

Students have access to on-campus health and wellness resources designed to support your physical and mental well-being throughout your college journey, because a healthy student is a successful student.

SAFE, SECURE, AND ALWAYS LOOKED AFTER.

Your safety is our top priority — and we take it seriously. Greensboro College maintains 24/7 campus monitoring, secured and locked residence halls, and a large, dedicated team of campus safety and security officers who are always on duty and always looking out for you.

READY TO FIND YOUR THING?

You've got options — tons of them. Majors, minors, concentrations, certificates — mix and match, explore, and build a path that's actually yours. We didn't design our programs for some outdated version of the job market.

We built them for the one you're about to walk into: fast-moving, full of possibility, and wide open for people who know how to adapt. Whatever you're into, whatever you want to become, we'll help you get the real-world skills and hands-on experience to make it happen. So go ahead — chase the big stuff. You'll graduate ready for anything.

The George Center For Honors Studies offers Greensboro College's most ambitious students an alternative general education curriculum designed to challenge and inspire. The GC Honors program gives high-achieving students an enriched path through college along with smaller seminar courses, a built-in humanities minor, early registration, and a dedicated Honors community. Top applicants with a weighted 4.0 GPA or higher may be considered for the Presidential Scholarship, a full-tuition award.

Students may also consider studying abroad at places like a 13th-century castle in the Italian Alps, the University of Westminster in England, or Queen Margaret University in Scotland. The George Center for Honors Studies is a program designed for students ready to take ownership of their education.

STUDY ABROAD - Pack your bags — your classroom is about to span the globe. At Greensboro College, study abroad means real adventure with real impact: faculty-led trips, semester abroad, or a full year immersed in a new culture, all while earning credit toward your degree. You'll leave with the kind of cross-cultural confidence that turns heads in any room, anywhere. Go global.

BUILT FOR STUDENTS WHO ASK ‘WHAT’S NEXT?’

THE PEAK: Personal Enrichment and Knowledge

Whether you’re reconsidering your major, preparing for a big exam, or looking for smarter ways to study, the PEAK provides free, personalized support to help you move forward with confidence. Services include academic advising, tutoring, study skills and time-management coaching, career counseling, and classroom accommodation arrangements.

SIP & Math Support: Built Around How You Learn

We know that every student learns differently, and the Supplemental Instruction Program (SIP) and Math Support are designed with that in mind. Students enrolled in supported courses gain access to tailored resources that go beyond the classroom, helping them build individualized strategies for success. Through collaboration with peers, student leaders, and faculty, you’ll develop the skills and voice you need to take ownership of your academic journey.

GC Global Communication Center

The Center gives Greensboro College students the tools to tell their story — and share it with the world. Located right on campus, the GCC connects you with professional consultations, recording studios, editing software, and industry-grade equipment. Whether your passion is podcasting, graphic design, photography, video production, or written and oral communication, the GCC is here to help you bring your ideas to life and graduate with a portfolio to prove it.

AFFORDABLE MEETS EXCEPTIONAL

We believe that students from all backgrounds should have access to a world-class, private education that empowers them to build a successful future. Greensboro
